JAPAN'S DECLARATION OF WAR.

The Official Gasette of August 2nd issued an extra," containing a formal declaration of war against Chica, which the Japan Herald translates as follows :-

IMPERIAL RESCRIPT. We, by the grace of Heaven, the Emperor of Greet Japan, having ascended the throne by ultimo. Song-bwan is a post station a tew virtue of a lineal succession unbroken for ages eternal, do announce to all our brave and loyal subjects that we hereby declare war against

All our officials and officers with a view to pursue our intentions should devote themselves to carrying on war with China both on land and sea so as to further the consummation of the national object. They are desired to leave nothing undone, but to use every means within the limit of their functions to this end, and consistently with international law.

Over twenty years have elapsed since our accession to the throne. During that time, we have made it our object to see praceful progress in the enlightenment of the country realized, and deeply impressed with the impropriety of being involved in complications with foreign Powers have always directed our Ministers of State to make efforts towards promoting friendship with Treaty Powers. Fortunately our intercourse with foreign Powers has increased in goodwill and friendship year by year. Contrary to our expectations, bowever, every act of China towards this country in connection with Korean affairs is against the principles that should govern friendly relations with neighbouring Powers, and a breach of good faith towards Japan.

Korea, which was first induced by this Empire to enter into the comity of nations, is an independent country. Yet China has all the while called Korea her dependency, and has interfered both openly and secretly in her home affairs. On the there blockaded several of the pick of Japan's recent insurrection breaking out in Kores, China despatched her troops to the Peninsula on the alleged plea of helping her dependency in its and Japan herself is rendered impotent. The above regulation does not apply in the case where more than one offence has been committed by the same person. This ordinance came into force from the date of its promulgation.

Well now, let me show you the worst and biggest hole any man ever had in his pocket; a hole that lets the cash leak away like water through a sieve, a hole that is the hardest in the world to sew up. A short story will show it best.
